

Closing and Arrival of the Mails at the Louisville Postoffice.
Eastern, Western and Northern close at 12:30 p.m.
Southern close at 1:30 p.m.
Mail to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Paul, Minn., and all points north of New York, closes at 2:30 p.m.
Mail to New Orleans, Mobile, Savannah, and all points
south of New York, closes at 3:30 p.m.
Mail to St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Paul, Minn.,
and all points north of New York, closes at 4:30 p.m.
Mail to New Orleans, Mobile, Savannah, and all points
south of New York, closes at 5:30 p.m.
Mail to St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Paul, Minn.,
and all points north of New York, closes at 6:30 p.m.
Mail to New Orleans, Mobile, Savannah, and all points
south of New York, closes at 7:30 p.m.

REMOVAL.

The Louisville Democrat Office has been established on the South side of Green street, one door from the Customhouse, on the square between Third and Fourth streets, in the building formerly occupied by the Louisville Courier.

CITY NEWS.

Military Directory.
Brigadier General Holt, commanding District of Western Kentucky. Headquarters on Seventh street, between Chestnut and Broadway. Office hours for officers, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.
Military business of urgent importance only will be transacted on Sunday, for which purpose Headquarters will be open until 12 m.
Capt. Julia Foster, Assistant Adjutant-General of Cavalry—Office No. 741 Sixth street, between Chestnut and Broadway.
Capt. M. C. Mundy, commanding post—Office on Center street, between Jefferson and Third.
Quartermaster's Office—Third street, two doors above Third.
Capt. H. C. Symonds, Commissary of Subsistence—Office on Second street, between Third and Fourth.
Lieut. J. P. Head, Medical Director—Office on Walnut street, between Third and Fourth.
Lieut. Col. Selby Hargis, Provost Marshal—Office on Green street, between Fifth and Sixth.
Lieutenant Colonel, Ordnance Office—Seventh and Main streets.
Post Commissary, under charge of Mr. James C.
Barnes, Main street, between First and Second.
Capt. W. F. Hargis, Assistant Quartermaster (in charge of transportation)—Office on Main street, between Third and Fourth.
Captain Bull, military storekeeper—Main street, between First and Second.
Parasutist's Office—Corner of Third and Walnut streets.
United States Depository—over the Postoffice.
Lieutenant Colonel, Ordnance Office, Main street, between Seventh and Eighth.

General Hospitals in Louisville.
No. 2—Corner of Ninth and Broadway streets.
No. 3—Fourth street, between Walnut and Chestnut.
No. 4—Corner of Fifth and Main streets.
No. 5—For Female Patients, Barrenwood street.
No. 6—Green street, between Third and Fourth.
No. 7—A hill east of Park barracks.
No. 8—Fourth street, between Third and Fourth.
No. 9—Corner of Market and Walnut streets.
No. 10—Walnut street, between Jackson and Harcock.
No. 11—Corner of Chestnut and Floyd, and City Hospital.
No. 12—Corner of Lexington and Main streets.
No. 13—Corner of Green and Third streets.
No. 14—Corner of Brook street and Broadway (for officers).
No. 15—Griffin House, Newburg pike.
No. 16—Watham Hotel, Jeffersonville, Ind.
No. 17—Turner's Hall, Jefferson street.
No. 18—Jefferson House, between the Barrenwood and Newburg turnpikes.
No. 19—Swelling Rock, three miles out.
No. 20—On Marshall street, between Campbell and Wmuel.

JOB PRINTING.
The JOB DEPARTMENT in the Democrat Office is now ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, etc., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

Attempted Destruction of the Nash- ville Train.

As the passenger train was coming this way yesterday, at a point near the town of Franklin, Ky., and where a short curve occurs in the road, a log had been placed in a covey for the purpose of expelling the train. Fortunately the end of the log did not stand toward the train, or it would doubtless have resulted in serious damage and endangered the lives of many on the train. As the cars struck the log they pressed it down and passed on without injuring those on board. The fender on the locomotive was injured, and the car damaged somewhat. It caused a delay of an hour, and hence the train due at six o'clock, did not reach the depot until 7 p. m., last evening. It is supposed in that neighborhood that secessionists had plotted this mischief, and whether out of mere wantonness, or for the purpose of robbery, we can not tell.

PROCEEDINGS—Friday, March 13.

The usual routine of opening was passed through, in dignity and silence, when Thomas Parmenter, charged with shooting McCue, last Sunday night, was introduced. The case was continued to next Monday. Parmenter was remanded to jail.
Judge H. Smith was required to give bonds in $300 to appear before the Grand Jury, for selling lottery tickets without a license.
Henry Price, for being drunk and disorderly, had to give bail in $100 to behave himself for sixty days.
Peter Conway, implicated in the nigger question on the large, mentioned a few days ago, was discharged. The negroes are still in custody.
Thos. J. Smith, an old man from the country, returned his sincere thanks to Judge Johnson for a night's lodging in jail.

Freeman Miller and Dennis Brennan, two sister boys, broke into Henry Johnson's barber shop and stole a mirror. In which they saw the error of their way, and promised to be good boys in future.

Some respectable citizens near the lower side of Fourth street say they would be very much obliged if some one of the city police would let them know where they can be found on Sunday. Sometimes when a set of rowdies gather about certain saloons in that neighborhood, and have been drinking, quarrelling and cutting one another with bowie-knives, shooting at each other, &c., for two or three hours, as they did last Sunday, it would be a relief, especially to persons of a nervous temperament, to know where to find a policeman.

The John method of driving, so generally practiced by the army teamsters, to the great jeopardy of life and limb, it is supposed has been adopted for the express benefit of army contractors. The more wagons ruined, and horses and mules destroyed, the better for the contractors—then it is to the greater circumference of money among the people.

ELECTION TICKETS.—We have made arrangements to print the tickets for the coming election at very low prices. Candidates will find it to their interest to patronize us. Our form will be a very neat and roomy one, and beside its typographical appearance, it is hard to see how anybody can get of being elected without our imprint. Preposterous!

UNION MEETING OF EIGHTH WARD.—A meeting of the Union Democracy of the Eighth ward will be held at the Resene En-glewiche 10 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State convention.
A full attendance is requested.

The usual religious services of the East Baptist Church will be engaged in, tomorrow (Sunday), the 15th instant, at the usual hour, the pastor having regained his health.

James McGee, who was shot last Sunday night, died of his wound on Thursday, at four o'clock.

THE UNIONISTS IN ALABAMA.—From rebel sources we have the following interesting news from North Alabama: A letter from Florence, to the Mobile Register, says that Wayne county is full of renegades, styling themselves Union men, joined by deserters from the Southern army. They have become more formidable than ever before.

Major Baxter, commanding a battalion of scouts, learning recently of the muttering place of these renegades, distant from Florence only five miles in the mountains, he prepared a surprise, and found eight of them organizing a company, of which he captured forty, with a stand of colors, five drums and some arms.

The leaders were imprisoned, and a portion of the members sent to Gen. White. The balance were released on taking the oath. The ringleader of the party saved a gun from the hands of the guard, shot and killed him, and attempted his escape, but, after a desperate struggle, was retaken and hung.

Last week Major Baxter went into the same vicinity and remained all night at the house of a man whom he supposed true to the cause, but was betrayed and gobbled up by ten well armed renegades. While carrying him off intelligence reached them that Baxter's men arrived at the house and threatened to lay waste the whole neighborhood unless he was released, which was done. Large band of these traitors lazes Wayne and the adjoining counties, and murder every Confederate soldier that crosses their track.

We learn that the entire board of principals and professors of the public schools called upon Geo. W. Morris, Esq., President of the School Board, and earnestly requested him, through their Chairman, to reconsider his determination not to allow his name to be presented to the voters of the Seventh ward for reelection in April, as a Trustee from that ward. Greatly to their regret and that of every friend of the public schools, after enumerating his reasons for declining, and expressing his appreciation of the commitment implied, he found himself unable to comply with their request. This decision of his will be very generally regretted. It is not too much to say that his loss to the Board of Trustees is irreparable at this period in the history of the public school enterprise. If any plan could yet be adopted, to secure his acceptance of a nomination for the place, it ought to be urged.

WOOD'S THEATER.—The public have been on the qui vive for the opening of this house.
The reputation of Mr. Wood as a caterer for public favor in theatricals has been fully carried out in the selection of the following ensemble:

Miss Letitia Hough, Miss Bella Golden, Miss Curran, Miss Gray, Miss Gohli, Miss Swift, Miss Anderson, Miss Clifton, Miss Grant, Miss Annie Mayting, Miss Susie Mayting, Miss Proctor, Miss Akerry, Miss Beckett, Miss Miller, Miss Osborne, Miss Bailey, Miss Thomas, Miss Thornton, Miss Beatty, Mr. J. E. Owens, Mr. Norman, Mr. Golden, Mr. Radcliffe, Mr.
Gross, Mr. Goldwood, Mr. Curran, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Harris, Mr. Mortimer, Mr. Whitten, Mr.
Donnelly.

Leader of orchestra, J. Novarre; scenic artist, J. H. West; machinist, Wallace Hume.
Jas. H. Randall, the originator of the fix-ture, and the originator of the "Seven Sisters," at Laura Keane's theater, who will remain and superintend this place, for he anticipates a long run, if expense, display, paraphernalia and talent can win, the success of Mr. Wood is fixed.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. Joshua V. Himes, of Boston, Massachusetts, will commence a course of prophetic and practical lectures, on Monday evening next, March 16th, in the Jefferson street Baptist Chapel, corner of Eighth and Market streets. Opening lecture Monday evening, at half-past seven o'clock, and will be continued each successive evening through the week. He will also give intermittent lectures on each day to Christians, on the higher law, commencing on Tuesday, 3
p. m. Christians and persons of all denominations are respectfully invited to attend.

FIRE IN THE COUNTRY.—Before daylight yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the dwelling house of Benjamin Garr, about eight miles from the city, on the Barrenwood road.
The building was a frame, and entirely consumed. A great part of the furniture was saved, but everything else lost—among the losses all his silver ware. The family were asleep, and were not aroused till after the fire had gained so much headway that it could not be extinguished with the means at hand.
It is supposed to have caught in the kitchen.
The loss is estimated at $3,000 or $4,000. Mr.
Garr has been a citizen of this county for many years.

CAN IT BE STOPPED?—We have heard, during several days past, much complaint of the disorderly conduct of soldiers on the streets, at night, which certainly deserves the attention of the authorities. Within the last two weeks we have heard of a number of instances in which peaceable citizens have been attacked on the streets at night by half drunken soldiers—in some cases the citizens being knocked down. It seems to us that a more rigid police might put a stop to such lamentable occurrences. In behalf of the community, we earnestly request the attention of the proper authorities to this matter.

ELEVENTH WARD.—As the Legislature, at its last session, passed an act amending the city charter as to create the Eleventh ward out of the Tenth and First, and as it must be represented in the new Council, the citizens of that ward would do well to canvass for proper representatives. We have heard suggested the name of Wm. Ragsdale, as alderman.
He is now a member of the Common Council from the First ward, and has the experience and other qualifications necessary to fill the position with ability.

INQUEST NO. 33.—Held March 13th, 1863, at the residence of Berna McGoff, on Portland avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, on the body of James McKee, P. M., March 12th, from a wound in the left side of the breast, caused by a pistol ball at the hands of Thos. Parmenter. Said wound was inflicted March 8th, 1863, at the Graham Hotel, on Fourth street.

Jas. C. GILL, Coroner.

We were shown yesterday a French sack with flowing sleeves, elaborately braided and trimmed with bugles—one of the most tasteful garments yet introduced. In addition to this were shown two new styles of (we blank to say it) hoop skirts, the "quakers" and pride of the world, with a "lady's op-erion." They are the best yet invented. Ladies only will read this article.

PERSONAL.—Col. Loomis, of the celebrated Loomis Battery, in company with Mrs. General Resene and an Col. Wood, arrived at the Major Anderson last night. The two Colonels go to join their commands. Mrs. Resene goes to join her command.

The practice, peculiar to Louisville, of depositing ashes in the streets, is capital.
They are to themselves wings, and give everything such a lively appearance when the wind blows.

The theater had a fair and fashionable audience last night. In addition to the "Seven Sisters" the "Globe Family" will be played to-night, in which the favorite Jo, Dawson takes a leading part.

DEDICATION OF ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.— This church will be dedicated to-morrow, the 15th inst., at 10 o'clock, a. m., by Bishop Smith, who will preach on the solemn occasion.

The usual religious services of the East Baptist Church will be engaged in, tomorrow (Sunday), the 15th instant, at the usual hour, the pastor having regained his
health.

James McGee, who was shot last Sunday night, died of his wound on Thursday, at four o'clock.

Our Correspondence—Matters Along the Cumberland.

CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE,
Tuesday, March 10, 1863.
Messrs. Editors: There has been quite a commotion in town circles to-day and to-night; gossip is busy among many hearthstones.
Three scouting parties that were sent out last night, across the Cumberland river, returned to-day, each party being successful in the capture of prisoners. Lieut. Brown, of the Eighth Kentucky cavalry, with twenty-five men, crossed the river last night, and scouting up in the vicinity of Antonio and Webster Furnaces, succeeded in arresting eight prisoners, and otherwise so faithfully performing his duty that he has been commended in a general order. Five of the prisoners arrested belonged to the rebel army, and were quietly enjoying a few days with the friends of home, when they were picked up.
Capt. Brown, of the Confederate army, and son of the Hon. Cave Johnson, is one of the number. He is a spirited youth, and is an ardent believer in the future glory of the Confederacy. The other prisoners were peaceful and innocent citizens, who never harmed the Government by look or deed, to hear them tell the story, when, under a heavy guard, has conclusive evidence that they shouldered their guns and participated on the rebel side.
In the light of Fort Donelson, we would recommend them to no mercy, and they ought to pay their debt to the citizen and soldier.

A scout from the Abanathy furnace road was also successful. The boys had the good fortune to pick up a rebel soldier, and arrest one Henry Lyle, a private citizen of this county, having been collector of revenue for more than fifteen years. He is charged with harboring a guerrilla, and after a party for a score of miles, and after a heavy fighting, he was taken, run upon a band of rebel cavalry, and captured in numbers, when they thought it prudent to deliver a heavy volley, and will be sent over in that part of the country to-morrow, to clear it of all rebel cavalry.
The prisoners will be forwarded to Nashville by the first boat, there to be disposed of.

There appears to be an organized band of horse thieves in this country, with headquarters at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate boldly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

There appears to be an organized band of
horse thieves in this country, with headquarters at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

Col. Bruce sent twelve cavalrymen to the
assistance of Clarksville, with headquarters
at Paducah, a small place twelve miles
below here, on the river. They operate bold-
ly, stealing horses in Kentucky, and running
them south, where they find a nice sale.
Some of the horses stolen in this part of the country,
and sent down to Kentucky for disposal.
They cross the river, and a heavy guard
man by the name of Tuberville keeps a split
team, and a peculiar signal at night makes
known to him, and he will cross the river
with the first boat, there to be disposed of.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Job Printing of all Descriptions.—In Plaster and in Oil, and in all the latest styles, at the Shortest Possible Notice.
Call and Examine Specimens and learn prices.

BURNETT'S COCAINE.—The famous preparation for the hair, under the above title, has won for itself great popularity in this city and throughout the South. Coming from a source of unquestionable skill and respectability, the public are led to impose sufficient confidence in the article to use it to the end, and when ordered, its reputation is fully established as being the most elegant and beneficial hair dressing in the world. The ladies who have been accustomed to the use of animal oils and alcoholic washes, speak in strong terms of its superiority. —(Norfolk Va.) Day Book.

And sold everywhere. mh14 d35

The administrator's sale by C. C. C.
Speaner, of the household furniture of Wm. P.
Myers, deceased, taken place at 10 o'clock this morning, on Jefferson street, between Hancock and Clay. The real estate and other articles of furniture are entirely new, and of the finest quality.

James M. Ladd, 331 Main street, has now on hand a large and well assorted stock of goods, and is prepared to receive orders.
He is in receipt of an invoice of superfine black and nutria French felt hats, such as are rarely ever brought to this market; also an invoice of spring styles silk and cashmere dress hats of a superior quality. Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed on him, he desires to call the public generally, he solicits a continuation of the same, feeling confident that, notwithstanding the advance in prices, he will be able to supply the public with goods of the same quality, and at the same time, by the most reasonable terms, having bought exclusively for cash from the largest manufacturers East.
Persons visiting the city, and wishing any thing in his line, would do well to call and examine his stock before making their purchases. mh13 d35

TRAIN UP A CHILD IN THE WAY HE SHOULD GO. This is the injunction addressed to every parent and guardian. Now, it is a well settled fact that self-respect and good behavior set much from dress as from any other cause. Give child or youth a nice suit of clothing, and he will seek good company.
A common outfit will produce the opposite tendency. Mr. Armstrong, on Main street, approves the National Hotel, sells clothing that will give joy to the child, good manners to the youth, and gratification to the parent.

GOOD LUCK.—The high rate of premium on gold has caused a great advance in the price of all kinds of jewelry. Now, it is a well settled fact that self-respect and good behavior
set much from dress as from any other
cause. Give child or youth a nice suit of
clothing, and he will seek good company.
A common outfit will produce the opposite tendency. Mr. Armstrong, on Main street, approves the National Hotel, sells clothing that
will give joy to the child, good manners to the youth, and gratification to the parent.

THE principal companies making sewing machines are Wheeler & Wilson, J. M.
Singer & Co., and Grover & Baker. Of the three, the Wheeler & Wilson is the best, and year last reported—
By Wheeler & Wilson..... 21,365
By Singer & Co..... 10,463
By Grover & Baker..... 10,280 Showing Wheeler & Wilson's sale to be double those of any other sewing machine company in the country.

In addition to these awards of the highest authority, we have the testimonials of the most intelligent and influential ladies, manufacturers and professional seamstresses in all parts of the United States, Europe, British America, Turkey, India, China and Japan. All machines warranted three years.
W. M. SINGER & CO., Agents.
No. 1 Masonic Temple.

UNITED STATES REVENUE STAMPS.—I have on hand and will constantly keep a full supply of the above stamps.
Persons ordering by mail may depend upon having their orders filled by return mail.
Office in Customhouse.
mh13 d35

LATEST STYLES.—The particular attention of the ladies is called to a large and very elegant assortment of shell, ivory, and amber knives, combs, jewelry, and all the latest styles of goods, at the lowest prices.
Office in Customhouse.
mh13 d35

80 bags cotton yarn, assorted sizes.
60 300 bags Rio coffee.
60 hds. New Orleans sugar.
20 butts fine Virginia tobacco.
40 butts Missouri and Kentucky do, for sale at lowest prices.
GLAZEBROOK, Bro. & Co., 530 Main street.

APRIL ELECTION.
FOR MAYOR.
Elihu D. Drake, if THOS. CRAWFORD will consent to become a candidate for Mayor, he will receive the support of
mh14 d35

MRS. HANCOCK, HUGHES & CO.—Announce Wm. P. Myers, deceased, as a candidate for Mayor at the ensuing April election. Being one of our oldest and most reliable citizens, and having been for the past twenty years a resident of this city, he will receive the hearty support of a host of
mh14 d35

THOMAS SHANKS will be a candidate for Mayor, subject to the decision of a convention, should one be called.
ROBERT FRIGOTSON is a candidate for Mayor at the ensuing April election.
We are authorized to announce JOHN M. DELPH as a candidate for re-election as Mayor at the ensuing April election.
JOSEPH A. GILLISS is a candidate for Mayor at the ensuing April election.
mh14 d35

FOR CITY AUDITOR.
We are authorized to announce WM. MCCABRELL as a candidate for re-election to the office of City Auditor at the ensuing April election.
mh14 d35

FOR CITY TREASURER.
HENRY WOLFFORD is a candidate for re-election to the office of City Treasurer at the ensuing April election.
mh14 d35

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Coal! Coal! Coal!
N. W. HUGHES,
PITTSBURG & YOUGHIOGENY
COAL.
Having devoted my exclusive attention during the past twenty years to the Wholesale and Retail Trade in the Best Quality of
PITTSBURG & YOUGHIOGENY
COAL.
I feel justified in offering to the public, Coal of the best quality, by the bag or by load, or by retail, at annually low prices to suit the times. At my office, No.
104 Fourth street, between Main and Water, east side, I have and sell exclusively FOR CASH, and manufacture to retail customers coal weight, as my coal is all weighed by a sworn Coal Inspector.
mh14 d35

AMERICAN WATCHES
FOR SOLDIERS
AT REDUCED PRICES.
American Watches for Americans!

The American Watch Company give notice that they have lately issued a new style of Watch, expressly designed for Soldiers and others who desire a good watch at a moderate price. These watches are intended to displace the worthless cheap watches of British and Swiss manufacture with which the country is flooded, and which were never expected to keep time when they were made, being inferior manufactures sent to this country because unsalable at home and used here only for JOKING and SYMPHONY purposes.

We offer to sell our Watches, which is of the most SUBSTANTIAL MANUFACTURE, an ACCURATE and DURABLE TIMEKEEPER, and in Sterling Silver cases. Handling patterns at as low a price as is asked for the trashy Swiss and patterns of foreign make already referred to.
We have named the new series of Watches, WILLIAM ELBERT, Boston, Mass., which will

